AN EERIE EVENING AT THE TAMPA BAY HOTEL

Tampa, FL (September 1, 2018) Visit the Henry B. Plant Museum for a thrilling Halloween event. An Eerie Evening at the Tampa Bay Hotel will be held on October 27, 2018 from 7 - 10 pm. See the Museum in moonlight as you've never seen it before and hear creepy tales from days long past. Learn about spirit photography and create your own haunting image. Victorian mourning and funeral customs come to life as eerie entities roam the halls. Period lighting and candles set the stage for true stories of death, homesick soldiers, and poisons. Lantern light will flicker off the walls as visitors travel to the brink of a shadow world.

Visitors to An Eerie Evening at the Tampa Bay Hotel will enjoy light refreshments on the veranda, a close look at macabre items from Dysfunctional Grace Art Co, and an opportunity to shop in the Museum Store. Don't miss a photo opportunity in a vintage wheelchair, and look closely at historic photographs to spot any spirit visitors!

Your ticket includes a special 10% discount on same day meals and drinks at TamPiz Pizzeria, located at 113 S Hyde Park Avenue.

An Eerie Evening at the Tampa Bay Hotel is a rare opportunity to visit the Museum after dark. Tickets will go on sale to the public October 1st, $25 per person. Advanced purchase is strongly encouraged as space is limited. This event is intended for visitors ages 16 and above. For more information visit www.plantmuseum.com or call 813.258.7302.

The Henry Plant Museum interprets the turn-of-the-century Tampa Bay Hotel and the lifestyles of America's Gilded Age. Critical to the success of this mission is the restoration and preservation of this National Historic Landmark, an opulent 1891 railroad resort, and the artifacts significant to its history, and the life and work of Henry Bradley Plant.
